

INFORMED CONSENT FORM FOR INDIVIDUAL COUNSELING

I am a student currently undergoing an internship at from to During this period, I will be supervised by (academic supervisor's name)
and (site supervisor's name).

CONFIDENTIALITY AND LIMITATIONS OF CONFIDENTIALITY

All discussions in the sessions are confidential. However, there are certain limitations to confidentiality that require me (the student) to report to the relevant authorities if:

- a) Risk of serious harm: If there is a reasonable concern of imminent and serious risk of harm to you or others.
- b) Abuse/neglect: Suspected abuse or neglect of a child, older person, or vulnerable individual where reporting is required.
- c) Court order/legal requirement: If records are compelled by a valid court order or lawful authority.
- d) Medical emergency: Information may be shared with relevant professionals to ensure safety.
- e) Professional supervision/consultation: Your case may be discussed for professional consultation/supervision, with reasonable efforts to protect your identity.
- f) Client Rights: You may request clarification on confidentiality at any point.

SESSION DURATION

Each individual counseling session will last between 45 to 60 minutes. However, the duration will depend on the client goals and progress and will be reviewed periodically.

VIDEO/AUDIO RECORDING

I will record counseling sessions for learning and teaching purposes. If at any time you feel uncomfortable, the recording can be stopped. These recordings will be shared with my academic supervisor and site supervisor. The recordings will not interfere with the training process, and they will only continue if both you and I are comfortable. All recordings and transcripts will be destroyed at the end of this course.

CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND RIGHTS

- a) To cooperate and be honest during counseling sessions.
- b) To make sincere and continuous effort to address the issues presented.
- c) Participate in decisions regarding goals and approaches.
- d) To inform the counselor in advance if you are unable to attend a scheduled counseling appointment. You also have the right to withdraw and/or request a referral to another counselor/psychology officer/clinical psychologist/counselor trainee if you do not feel comfortable.
- e) You have the right to be informed if information from your sessions has been recorded.

Responsibilities of the Psychology Officer/Counselor/Counselor Trainee

In this counseling/assessment/psychological intervention, I act as a counselor/psychological officer/clinical psychologist/trainee counselor to assist you in managing the issues or concerns you wish to resolve, while respecting your dignity, values, and abilities. If you fail to attend the scheduled appointment three (3) consecutive times, I reserve the right to terminate the sessions. I will refer you to another counselor/psychological officer/clinical psychologist—with your prior consent—if you present concerns that are beyond my competence. Further referral will be made when necessary, based on your clinical condition/issues.

PROFESSIONAL BOUNDARIES

- a) Counseling is a professional relationship. Dual relationship (e.g. close friendship, business relationship) are avoided to protect your wellbeing.
- b) Gifts, social media contact, and non-professional contact may be declined to maintain ethical boundaries.
- c) Any concerns about boundaries can be discussed openly.
